

Callie Hammond Violin

Callie Knight Hammond received her Bachelor of Music Performance in violin from Columbus State University in 2003. She began playing violin at the age of nine with Peg Neuen, and later studied with Kerren Berz and Dr. Wei Kang Zhou. At CSU, she studied under Patricio Cobos and Manuel Diaz. Mrs. Hammond is the assistant concertmaster of the LaGrange Symphony Orchestra, and also performs with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra. She is the conductor of the Lafayette Youth Orchestra. Mrs. Hammond lives in LaGrange with her husband, Ladd, and her four year old son Hooper.