Symphony To Launch New Concert Season

Prepared by LSO Staff

The LaGrange Symphony Orchestra will begin its seventh season under the baton of Patricio Cobos at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 9, in Callaway Auditorium, on the campus of LaGrange College.

The program for this opening performance of the 2007-2008 concert series, "Classical Sounds with a Southern Flair," will be the "Der Freischutz Overture" by Carl Maria von Weber, Tchaikovsky's "Violin Concerto in D" and Beethoven's Symphony No. 3, the "Eroica Symphony."

The Tchaikovsky concerto will feature Russian violin soloist Anastasia Agapova. The recipient of several international violin competition awards, Ms. Agapova is currently a student at the Schwob School of Music at Columbus State University.

Immediately following this concert there will be a free reception at Kazan, located at 134 Main Street in downtown LaGrange. All concertgoers are invited.

All seats for symphony concerts in Callaway Auditorium are reserved. Tickets may be purchased from the symphony office prior to the day of the concert or at the Callaway Auditorium box office beginning at 7:00 p.m. the night of the concert.

Doors will open at 7:00 p.m. and concertgoers are encouraged to arrive early.

Tickets are $25 and $15 for adults and $5 for students sixth grade and older. Children fifth grade and younger are always free with an adult.

For tickets or more information, contact the LSO at (706) 882.0662 or e-mail symphony@mindspring.com or visit online at www.lagrangesymphony.org.
